Miss Anna Heston, daughter of Mr. C. R. Heston, of North Alabama street, is not the lady referred to in the recent findings of the Grand Jury. The name being an unusual one, the lady has been annoyed by impertinent inquiries, which makes this item necessary.

The lady admirers of Anderson Post G. A. R. presented the members of the order with an elegant flag, and tendered them a banquet at their hall, in the Griffith block, last night. There were about 150 persons present, and speeches were made by Colonel Haskell, Captain McPherson and Messrs. Weaver and Webster. The occasion was an enjoyable one.

Misses Louisa and Emma New, of North Delaware street, take high rank among the leading pianists of Indiana. They are graduates of St. Mary's Conservatory of Music, Notre Dame, and in all that goes to make a first-class performer they are specially favored. Few can excel them in power of recital, and in point of finish, coupled with genuine feeling (especially Miss Louisa), are entitled to the palm. These ladies, though residents of our city for several months, have kept out of sight through their retiring disposition, but now that their fame is known of they will be warmly welcomed in our best musical circles.

Refined and well-fitting apparel proclaims the artistic tailor as well as the man. How much better strangers are received if they are well dressed than if illly clad. This being admitted, it is important that you fall into competent hands when ordering clothing. Fean & Treat are undisputed authority on all matters of gentlemen's dress, and they are consulted by persons of the best taste and judgment.

To the patrons of the well known grocery here, formerly so successfully managed by Dan Lemon, at the corner of Washington and Mississippi streets: It has been purchased by Mr. E. D. Bryant, an experienced grocer, and from the start he has made in coordinating the walls with the finest paper and the shelves with the choicest goods in the market, one would be led to suppose that he intends to eclipse any grocery house in that locality. All the freshest vegetables, fresh country butter, eggs, etc., at the lowest cash prices. Call and see his fine display of vegetables.

How to Judge a Piano.

Every piano ought to be judged as to the quality of its tone, its touch and its workmanship; if any one of these is wanting in excellence, however good the others may be, the instrument will be imperfect. It is the combination of these qualities, in the highest degree, that constitutes the perfect piano, and it is this combination that has made the Hazelton Piano the choice of over 200 of our best citizens. At Peterson's Music Room, No. 19 North Pennsylvania street, they can be seen in all styles, and are sold at very reasonable prices and on very easy terms.

Reduction in the Price of Gas!

Notice to Gas Consumers and Others.

Your attention is called to the marked reduction in the price of gas, which took effect on the 1st day of March. The Company is now furnishing gas to all consumers at $1.80 per 1,000 cubic feet. This price is certainly within the reach of all, for both lighting and cooking purposes. The convenience and comfort of cooking by gas, especially during the summer months, where a fire is not otherwise required, can only be thoroughly appreciated by those who have had experience in its useful application for that purpose. The Company has sold for use in this city during the last four years a large number of gas stoves, and is satisfied from the many testimonials from its patrons, that these stoves "fill a long felt want."
